

I would LOVE to have my cell phone number portable. I have had this number for about 7 years and don't want to have to change it if I switch carriers. I know that the big companies don't want customers to have this option, but it would make it easier for me to switch and find the best deals.